FALL 2023 EDUCATIONAL SPEAKERS

Krystal Clark - On October 16, 2023 Krystal Clark came during CPC Women's Week to share with us "Get Out of Your Own Way: Overcoming the Roadblocks to Success as a Woman Leader."

Tim Mousseau - Co-sponsoring with the Office of Education and Prevention Programs and Office of Multicultural Affairs, the FSL Office had Tim Mousseau speak to our members about "Promoting Healthy Relationships & Ending Relationship Violence on October 24, 2023.

Rasheed Ali Cromwell - Together the IFC, CPC & NPHC councils brought Rasheed Ali Cromwell to campus on November 1, 2023. His program titled "All We Do is Step, Stroll & Hop. What is a Black Greek?" Educated the entire Longwood community about our NPHC groups & their history.

ZETA TAU ALPHA CELEBRATED 125 YEARS

Friday, October 13 - Sunday, October 15, 2023 Zeta Tau Alpha's from across the country came to Farmville to celebrate the 125th Anniversary of ZTA's founding.

Longwood ZTA alumnae showed up in large numbers to honor their chapter and welcome the entire ZTA National Council including the current National President, Dinah Jackson Laughery (pictured with President Reveley).

ZTA presented Longwood with a plaque that is on the front of Grainger to commemorate the 125th Anniversary and the rich history of teacher education at Longwood.
